ELVIS LIVES IS AN UNFORGETTABLE MULTI-MEDIA AND LIVE MUSICAL JOURNEY ACROSS ELVIS' LIFE. HIS ICONIC STYLE, EMBRACED BY MANY OF TODAY'S ARTISTS, CONTINUES TO INTRIGUE AUDIENCES OF ALL GENERATIONS. THE FIRESIDE IS CURRENTLY THE ONLY LOCATION IN THE WORLD WITH A SCHEDULED PRODUCTION OF THIS AMAZING SHOW!

Featuring champions and finalists from Elvis Presley Enterprises' worldwide Ultimate Elvis Tribute Artist Contest, audiences "Can't Help Falling In Love"® with this phenomenal theatrical concert experience. The show is a co-production of On Stage Touring's Legends in Concert division and producing partner Elvis Presley's Graceland®. Fireside audiences have enjoyed other Legends in Concert shows over the years including the most recent one in 2015 which featured Carrie Underwood, Neil Diamond, Elton John, Buddy Holly, Whitney Houston, and of course, Elvis Presley.

This production of ELVIS LIVES features three top winners of the tribute artist contest, each representing Elvis during different stages in his career. Bill Cherry, Dean Z, and Jay Dupuis from 2009, 2013, and 2014 unite as the featured cast. They will be joined by a live band, back-up singers and dancers, and a performer playing tribute to Ann Margaret. Graceland is also providing rarely seen restored video and photos from the Graceland Archives to enhance the production.

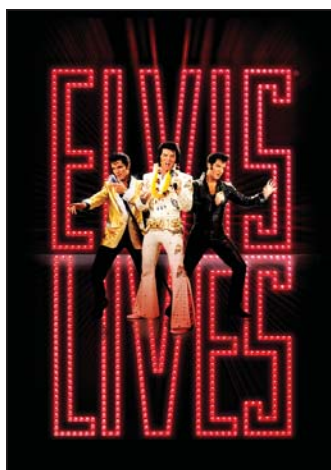

"The partnership between Legends In Concert and Graceland provides the only authentic touring showcase of Elvis tribute artists for fans who want to experience the music and live performance charisma of one of the most popular and beloved recording artists in history," said Elliot Ordowner, Producer of ELVIS LIVES for On Stage Touring. "Our thriving production showcases each performer portraying Elvis in one of four eras: the 1950's, 1960's, his movie career, and his concert years, so it is a unique and complete musical package."

"We are very pleased that ELVIS LIVES continues to delight audiences and that more Elvis fans will be given the opportunity to see these talented entertainers in the tour's expanded markets," said Gary Hahn, Vice President of Marketing and Media for Elvis Presley Enterprises and Graceland. Getting to see this show in the intimacy of The Fireside's theatre-in-the-round makes it even more special and unique. We hope you're planning to join us for this once-in-a-lifetime opportunity!

*“Stay positive and be happy, it’s all about having a good time!”
– Marci Glinski*

Learning from each other

MARCI GLINSKI JUST MARKED
16 YEARS WITH THE PROSPECT
HEIGHTS PARK DISTRICT

Marci Glinski began her career in travel working on corporate meetings and incentive programs. When she and her husband, Paul started their family, she stepped away to be a stay-at-home mom but did some volunteer work for the park district in Prospect Heights. She started off planning Special Events for them and when her children were in school full time they offered her a job. First she added the Active Adult programming and then the Dance and Performing Arts program. After 16 years, she’s now “full time plus” in a “never a dull moment” kind of job that keeps her busy seven days a week.

The Prospect Heights Park District is a private entity serving a population of about 17,000 people. Marci plans special events for all of them! First of all, there are about 140 trips per year for the Active Adults including their day trips to The Fireside and other theatres, fairs, festivals, and museums. This year’s three overnight trips include four nights in Nashville, three days to Iowa’s Amish country, and the Osthoff Resort’s Christmas Market in December. Most of her travelers are women but she’s happy to have six men on the trip to Nashville. Then there’s the six week theatre production with an original script, eight one-week arts camps during the school year that each have a performance at the end of the week, and year two of a new creative and performing arts day camp serving up to 50 youth per day. While she has a couple of drivers that help with the day trips, she always goes along on the overnight tours, just to be sure everything goes smoothly and to be on hand to solve any issue that comes up.

Marci recommends always having “something in your back pocket” just in case something goes astray. Even if it’s just being ahead of schedule she knows where to find a unique shopping spot, chocolate store, or ice cream shop in the vicinity - wherever that vicinity is. She also tries really hard not to cancel a tour because the people that did sign up were really looking forward to going, and it’s their opportunity for socialization. It helps that the Park District has a fleet of three 14-passenger vehicles so even if a trip doesn’t fill completely she can almost always still go.

She prefers the Sunday Midday show for her Fireside trips, with a 2:30 arrival for dining and a 5:00 show. That way she gets a mix of ages and both retirees and those still working. They can arrive a little early to shop (her ladies really love to shop) and still don’t get home too terribly late, around 9:30. Some shows she may only have a dozen people, but for Christmas it’s usually 45 to 50. “I’ve never had a problem at The Fireside,” Marci added. From the greeters to the wait staff everyone is so positive. That’s the key, you know, to stay positive and be happy. Happiness breeds happiness and it’s all about having a good time.” Sounds like someone that would sure be fun to travel with!

Even though her own job includes plenty to do, Marci also works with colleagues from other senior centers and park districts in Chicago’s northwest suburbs to plan an annual Senior Celebration Day. This year’s event is on June 9th and will have music, vendors, health screenings, and much, much more for about 2,000 attendees.

Marci’s son and daughter are both pre-med college students now so “free time” excursions include visits to the University of Iowa and Northern Michigan. They’ve become big Iowa Hawkeye fans in addition to longtime Chicago Blackhawks fans. Marci has been coming to The Fireside for many years, always well organized and always with a smile. We were beyond thrilled to surprise her last month with a well deserved Flame of Friendship Award!
